

I believe that XM provides an extremely important service with its traffic and weather channels. I don't believe that the NAB should be able to dictate what I hear on satellite radio--how is it any of their business what I listen to on XM, except that they have a shoddy product?

Please reject NAB's petition 04-160 in order to protect this valuable resource.